Attachment A

1. On September 16, 2022, Border Patrol (BP) Agents operating in La Grulla, Texas, observed two vehicles, including a silver Ford Expedition, travel to and park near the riverbank of the Rio Grande River.
2. BP Agents observed what appeared to be bundles of suspected narcotics being prepared for importation into the United States from Mexico in the area where the vehicles were parked. BP Agents then observed the silver Ford Expedition traveling at a high rate of speed northbound from the river.
3. BP Agents attempted to pull over the silver Ford Expedition, but the vehicle failed to yield. A brief vehicle pursuit ensued. The silver Ford Expedition eventually stopped but the driver, later identified as Alejandro TORREZ, fled from the vehicle. After a brief foot pursuit, BP Agents apprehended TORREZ.
4. During a search of the silver Ford Expedition, BP Agents located 49 bundles of suspected marijuana in the silver Ford Expedition. The suspected marijuana weighed approximately 203 kilograms.
5. During a post Miranda interview, TORREZ admitted that he knowingly worked with other individuals to transport the marijuana in exchange for $4,000 US currency.
